

Vuko Bulatović

Junior QA tester

I'm a Junior QA Tester looking for a beginner role to demonstrate and expand my knowledge and skills.

I have strong analytical and problem-solving skills that make an ideal combination with my creative and critical thinking. Years of work experience in different collectives have contributed to the development of my soft skills such as teamwork, and adaptability.

With the knowledge that I am continuously improving and a strong work ethic, which is reflected in dedication and thoroughness in work, I believe that I would be an important member of your QA team.
